MOBERLY WETS WIN BY MAJORITY OF 509

Carry Every Ward Except Third, in Which Most of City's Churches Are Located.

BOONEVILLE VOTES SHORTLY

Date of Local Option Election in River Town Has Been Let for Friday, December 3.

Moberly, Mo., Nov. 10.—Carrying all but one ward in the local-option election here yesterday, the wets won by a majority of 509 votes. The drys carried the Third Ward, in which are located most of the churches and where virtually all the ministers live, by only 7 votes. A total of 3,113 votes was cast.

Boonville, Mo., Nov. 10.—Boonville will vote on local option Friday, Dec. 3. The Boonville Local Option League, in about three hours, secured 219 names to a petition asking for a vote. This will be the first time in 25 years the liquor question has been voted on.

Boonville is a city about 5000 people, and has been a great liquor distributing point for a large dry section, including the counties of Howard, Boone, Callaway, Saline and Moniteau.

AUDRAIN TEACHERS HONORED AT TEACHERS MEETING

Audrain county played a prominent part in the State Teachers meeting which closed in Kansas City Saturday. There were 5,000 pedagogues present and the session is said to have been the largest held in the United States this year. Quite a large number of teachers from this county were in attendance of this summer three were signally honored.

In the department of rural schools Miss Janet White, of Martinsburg, was appointed secretary of this section. Miss White has a state-wide reputation in this work, having achieved fame while teaching in Burnside district, western Audrain.

D. E. Tugel, superintendent of schools at Vandalia, was chosen vice-president of the department of teachers and education, a most important factor in the association. He is the man who has made the Vandalia school system one of the strongest of any city in its size in Missouri.

President J. W. Millon, of Hardin College, was appointed secretary of the department of Universities, Colleges and Normal Schools. Dr. Millon has long been one of Missouri's leading educators and was the prime mover in the woman's junior college organization in the state. Hardin College being the first in Missouri to become a Junior College.

MEN AND MILLIONS CONFERENCE STARTS HERE

The Christian church of this city has been selected as the conference place for one of the largest and most influential religious movements ever instituted among American churches. The operations are carried on under the name of the Men and Millions Movement of the Disciples of Christ. The team that leads and manages the campaigns in the several states is composed of the leading missionary authorities, educators and business men of the Christian in this country. The team is now at work in the state of Missouri and has selected Mexico as the place for their initial conference in northeast Missouri. The conference and program will begin Friday morning at 9:30, and there will be afternoon and evening sessions also.

Hedegard School Will Entertain

Miss Zella Brown and her pupils will give a pie and pound supper at Hedegard school house Saturday night, Nov. 13, 1915. A program will be given by the school. Everyone is cordially invited to come.

Celebrates 70th Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Elliott entertained a number of guests Sunday at 12 o'clock dinner in honor of W. H. Brink's seventieth birthday. Mr. Brink is Mrs. Elliott's father. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brink, Mr. and Mrs. Will Marquette, of Hallsville; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Navell and daughters, Margaret and Louise, of Columbia; Mrs. J. D. Barrett, of Centralia; Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Gibbs and Mr. Sam Kelly, of Mexico.

Bryan Writings Barred.

San Francisco, Cal., November 10.—Ram Chandra, a local Hindu editor, announced Tuesday that a pamphlet which he said was made up wholly of translated excerpts from W. J. Bryan's "British Rule in India," has been barred from the mails in India at the request of the British Government.

James S. Campbell Dead.

James S. Campbell, of Kansas City 30 years old, died at his home in Kansas City Thursday night after an extended illness. Mr. Campbell was the son of Jno. P. Campbell, formerly a resident of this city. He was a nephew of Chas. Campbell, of Mexico.

Mr. Campbell leaves a wife and son. The funeral and burial services were held in Kansas City Monday. The Ledger joins the friends of the family in extending sympathy at this time.

Rex McDonald, champion saddle horse of the world and owned in this city by B. R. Middleton, died Nov. 10, 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Ankrum, of Middleton, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Ankrum.

BROWN EYED BLINDERS IN AUDRAIN PREDOMINATE

Of the 165 hunting licenses issued in Audrain county this year more brown eyed men than any other were in evidence. Blue eyes were scarce and there were no women on the list. Dr. J. B. Hawkins of this city, 76 years old, was the oldest to apply for a license. However there were several other hunters over seventy—E. W. Pritchett, Martinsburg, 73; and three from Vandalia, W. J. Harrison, 73, C. Foster 72 and Dave Turner 72. Lee Ray Lillard, 13 years old, was the youngest to take out license.

The county license costs $1 a year and expires December 31. Only two state licenses, $5 each, have been taken out. They are owned by Louis McKee and A. E. Diesel, both of this city, who are on a hunting trip in the Ozarks. The majority who hold licenses are Graham, F. E. Eller, G. W. Minor, (col.), T. S. Bearson, Chas. Chesterton, (col.), W. B. EMMONS AND SONS SALE BRINGS GOOD PRICES

33 Cows, Calves and Heifers of Emmons Own Breeding Average Sale Price $173.

YOUNG HEIFER BRINGS $400

O. B. McCrea, of Ianta, Mo., Was the Largest One Buyer—Four Head at $613.

S. F. Emmons and Sons twenty-ninth annual thoroughbred cattle sale held at Mexico Tuesday was one of the most satisfactory sales Mr. Emmons has ever had. Thirty three head from the Emmons herd of cows, calves and heifers averaged $173. Thirteen head of calves that Mr. Emmons had bought from other breeders averaged $77. Most of the buyers were from other sections of the state. Judge Alex Carter, W. W. Pollock and D. C. Owen were the only local buyers.

The three feature sales of the day were: the top bull calf which was bought by G. G. Gallatin for $275; a two year old heifer bought by D. C. Owen of this city for $400; and the bargain of the sale, a Violet heifer, sold to Littell Bros., of Clark for $305.

Among the other big buyers were: J. P. Taylor, Jonesburg, Ark., two calves for $325; C. L. Emmons, two calves for $390; O. B. McCrea, Ianta, Mo., four head for $613. W. R. Benson, of Madison, and C. L. Hess of Stoutsville, were liberal buyers.

MARRIED TUESDAY EVENING

Glenn Major, of Stoutsville, nephew of Governor E. W. Major, and Miss Mary Harrison, daughter of Crockett Harrison, 4 miles southeast of this city, were married Tuesday afternoon at 4:45 at the bride home by the Rev. A. A. Wallace. Both young people are members of prominent families in their section. Only immediate relatives of the young people were present. Mrs. Major is a charming and accomplished young woman and her husband is a splendid young man. The Ledger joins in extending congratulations and best wishes.
